LETTER FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

It is with mixed feelings that I bring you greetings from the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners. As you know, the 78th Legislature was a very busy one. HB1483 passed and the Board of Nurse Examiners will assume the responsibilities of the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners February 2004. Even though the staff of the B.V.N.E. has been doing an outstanding job for 50 plus years our current state government feels that money can be saved by combining the boards.

Many of you are to be commended for your years of lobbying on behalf of the B.V.N.E. You are outstanding nurses. Please continue to be involved with your profession. Now more than ever we need to network. You can do this by joining one of the L.V.N. organizations. I hope you enjoy this issue of The Lone Star LVN. There will be one more in December. May God bless you,

Geneva Harvey, LVN

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S CHAIR 78TH LEGISLATIVE SESSION COMES TO AN END

The June issue of the LVN Lone Star is arriving in July so that we could provide a summary of the bills passed this session that affects all nurses and specific to LVNs. Of particular interest to the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners was HB 1483 by Representative Allen. The new law abolishes the BVNE and transfers the functions of regulating LVNs to the Board of Nurse Examiners creating a Single Nursing Board and a single licensing act.

Effective February 1, 2004, the BVNE will no longer exist. Prior to this date, the agency will begin to transfer the regulation of LVNs to the Board of Nurse Examiners. Since both boards, offices are located on the same floor in the Hobby building the address will remain the same. In December, the last issue of the LVN Lone Star, we will further update you on the transition progress.

FAQ: Why does my LVN license read “Texas Only”?

As of January 2003, the board began marking licenses as “Renewal” or “Texas Only” to designate license privilege. A license with “Texas Only” indicates the license is only valid in Texas (single state license). A license with “Renewal” indicates the licensee is granted multi-state licensure privileges to practice in other compact states. For general information and a list of compact states, visit the Nurse Licensure Compact section of the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) Web site, www.ncsbn.org.

Filing a Complaint

A "complaint" is defined as an initial allegation of misconduct by a licensed vocational nurse (LVN) which could result in disciplinary action by the Board. Each complaint received will be reviewed and the circumstances of the complaint considered in determining if the allegation merits further investigation. The Board will contact the facility or individual (complainant) who files the complaint for further information, if needed. If an investigation is not opened on a complaint, the complainant will be notified that there was insufficient evidence to open an investigation at that time, but the information presented will remain on file and an investigation opened in the future, should circumstances warrant further action.

To file a complaint with the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners, the complainant should complete the complaint form which is available at the Board's website (www.bvne.state.tx.us) or call 800-821-3205 to obtain a copy of the complaint form. However, the Board encourages individuals to call the agency number (512-305-8100) for any practice questions involving LVNs.

The complainant should complete all of the fields in the complaint form, if the information is available. Understandably, an LVN's address, social security or license number may not be available to the complainant; in those instances, the full name of the LVN is required so that the Board may attempt to obtain that person's data from the computer system. Additionally, a brief synopsis of the alleged incident should be provided. The synopsis should include the date in which the incident occurred, where it occurred (i.e. the facility, patient's home, etc), and the names of those individuals who were directly involved in the incident. The synopsis should also contain a chronological detailing of the incident. Additionally, the complainant should identify the patients who were involved in the incident; either the full name of the patient or the medical record number can be supplied. It is important to provide this information when multiple patients are involved so that the investigator can match the patient to the appropriate occurrence. The complainant should also identify any witnesses to the incident. Finally, the complainant must provide his or her full name (the Board does not accept anonymous complaints), the name of the facility with which the complainant is affiliated (if appropriate to the complaint), address and telephone number. The Board will contact the complainant if further information is needed. If an investigation is initiated based on a complaint, the complainant will be appraised of the final disposition of the matter.

The Board believes the reporting of every minor infraction that may be a violation of the Texas Occupation Code, Chapter 302, does not enhance protection of the public. This is particularly true when there are mechanisms in place in the vocational nurse's employment setting to take corrective action, remedy deficits and detect patterns of behavior. A "minor incident" is defined as "conduct that indicates that the nurse's continuing to practice vocational nursing does not pose a serious risk of harm to the patient". A vocational nurse involved in an incident which is determined to be minor, need not be reported to the Board. An incident is considered to be minor when it is a one time incident without negative impact to the patients. However, a minor incident coupled with a pattern of negligence displayed by the LVN is reportable to the Board.

The mission of the Board is to protect the health and safety and to enhance the well being of the people of Texas. The best way to ensure that Texans are served by qualified safe practitioners of vocational nursing is through the monitoring of those LVNs who display a pattern of negligent practice. Therefore, the Board encourages those who are aware of negligent practice by an LVN to report such incidents to the Board.

Concerned about a colleague's practice due to chemical dependency or mental illness? If so, talk to a TPAPN nurse case manager. Phone 1-800-288-5528. Your call is always confidential
